

TIGERS GOTTA EAT

PHOTOS FROM SLEMANI
IRAQI KURDISTAN

In May 2018, I joined a few dozen volunteers in Iraqi Kurdistan to build the country's first skatepark. Through torrential rain and a blistering sun, on a diet of $1-a-pack smokes and 2000-dinar beers, we transformed the hard-rock earth into a concrete place of play. These are photos from Slemani Skatepark.
